

It's show time at housing arena

AV JENNINGS' Arena at Officer neighbourhood will be a one-stop shop for house buyers this Saturday afternoon as part of the Arena Home Show.

Featuring industry experts and 40 displays from 15 builders, the Arena Home Show is a great place to start planning your new home.

AV Jennings Victorian executive general manager Peter Vlitas said the event was a great opportunity for house buyers.

"Buying or building a new home can be an exciting — but daunting — process.

"This Saturday we'll not only have 40 designs to help buyers decide what they want, we'll have experts from across the building industry to answer any questions they might have.

"With experts in landscaping, sustainable gardening, outdoor living, finance, and even feng shui, you can spend an hour or two really getting your homework done.

"We'll also have a sausage sizzle and face painting for the kids."

Stroll in the village to the sounds of live jazz and discover the latest trends in house design.

The Arena display village will showcase designs from AV Jennings, Burbank, Carlisle, Clarendon, Cheviot, Dennis Family, Fernhaven, Homebuyers Centre, Metricon, Porter Davis, Premier, Rawdon Hill, Roseleigh and Superior.

Saturday's event coincides with The Havencourt release, featuring 21 blocks being sold as house-and-land packages with the Arena display builders.

Sizes range from 450-700 square metres. The sites have a peaceful atmosphere and are a short walk from parks, sports fields and wetlands.

AV Jennings is also giving buyers a chance to win thousands of dollars of great house accessories.

Buyers of land or a house at Arena before June 30 will go into a draw to win a number of packages.

The Arena Home Show will run from noon-4pm on Saturday, May 22, at the Arena display village, 7 Arena Parade, Officer. Details: call 131 878 or visit www.arena-at-officer.com.au
